

Paradigm3 Tehnologies Privacy Policy

Privacy Policy:

Paradigm3 Technologies, LLC (“Developer”) provides this Privacy Policy to inform users of our mobile applications about policies and procedures regarding the collection, use and disclosure of personally identifiable information.

Changes:

This Privacy Policy may be updated from time to time for any reason; each version will apply to information collected while it was in place. The changes shall take effect after we post or otherwise notify you about the changes. You are advised to consult this Privacy Policy regularly for any changes.

Consent:

By using the services, you are consenting to our processing of your information as set forth in this Privacy Policy now and as amended by us. “Processing” means using or touching information in any way, including, but not limited to, collecting, storing, deleting, using, combining and disclosing information, all of which activities will take place in the United States. If you reside outside the U.S. your personally identifiable information will be transferred to the U.S., and processed and stored there under U.S. privacy standards.

Information Collection:

When you register with us and use the services, you provide information about yourself. Depending on how you use the services, such information that you provide to us may include: (a) your name, email address, age, user name, password and other registration information; (b) your interaction with the Services and advertisements; (c) transaction-related information, such as when you respond to any offers, or download or use applications from us; (d) information you provide us when you contact us for help; (e) information you enter into our system when using the services, such as contact information and project management information.

In addition, we may collect certain information that cannot be used to personally identify any user, and may be provided to third parties. Such non-personal data ordinarily includes aggregate, summary, or other usage data such as statistics regarding total users, information regarding cellular provider, usage patterns, etc. Developer may collect non-personal data about users to help diagnose problems with our server, and to administer our services. In order to provide the services, Developer’s mobile applications may interact with some features on your mobile device, such as your social network accounts and e-mail applications, all processing occurs on the mobile device itself, and no information is transferred to Developer.

Third Party Applications:

The services may include links or otherwise allow you to access and submit information to third-party applications or sites. This Privacy Policy applies to the services only. Any information you submit to linked sites or other applications will be subject to the privacy policies of those sites or applications.

Information Usage:

Developer may track usage data and user traffic patterns throughout an application to improve the content of our and the quality of our service. We may use your information (a) to deliver the services and features desired by you, (b) to improve our services to you, (c) to personalize content and offers that may be of interest to you, (d) to respond to your inquiries, and (e) to fulfill your service requests.

We do not share personal identifying information collected on the Services, including email addresses, with third parties for their direct marketing or solicitation. Developer's applications utilize secure login authentication standards and we do not collect, or store your Facebook, Twitter, or E-mail account username or password.

We will disclose your personally identifiable information if we reasonably believe we are required to do so by law, regulation or other government authority or to protect our rights and property or the rights and property of the public. We may also cooperate with law enforcement agencies in any official investigation and we may disclose your personally identifiable information to the relevant agency in doing so.

Content Usage:

All content and information posted by you to the App is owned by you. However, by using the App you grant Developer non-exclusive, transferable, sub-licensable, royalty-free, worldwide license to use any Intellectual Property like photo and video content that you post on or in connection with Developer's applications or affiliated organizations.

Acquisition:

We reserve the right to transfer your personal information in the event of a transfer of ownership of Developer, such as an acquisition by or merger with another company. If an acquiring company should plan to materially change this privacy policy, we will notify you beforehand.

Security:

Developer requires physical, electronic, and procedural safeguards to protect personal information about you. We limit access to personal information about you to authorized employees who need to know that information in order to operate, develop or improve our services.

You can email us at dev@paradigm3.com with any questions or concerns that you may have.
